Dear Classmates:

Welcome to our 20th year reunion!!

It is almost imcomprehensible that 20 years have come and gone - and so seemingly quickly - since we left Boonton High. Those 20 years have brought with them inevitable change, both to our world generally and to us personally. The world has gone from airplanes to reusable rockets, from typewriters to computers, from the idealism of the '60's to the practical realism of the '80's. We have gone from teenagers to men and women, from students to workers, from incurable romantics to imperfect husbands and wives and parents.

With all the change that has occurred, the passage of 20 years has, nonetheless, left unchanged and intact at least one thing - our memories. Special among them must be the memories we have of four good and fun years at Boonton High. Though those memories may have slightly dimmed with time and though they are certainly "tailored" to each of us, who cannot recall making friends, going steady and breaking up, enjoying a favorite teacher, suffering through a hated class, attending sporting events, writing cliche after cliche in yearbooks, etc? We all remember those events - any many more - and we hold the memories of them forever, despite the attempt of time to change and erase them.

Tonight, we gather to celebrate the Class of '63. As part of that celebration, let us renew, relive and share among us our memories of Boonton High. Finally, let us enjoy the evening and each other's company such that we create new memories for the future. The memories we hold and create are no more than and no less than echoes of our past and future.

Again, welcome. I thank you for making this evening a success. I especially thank the members of the Reunion Committee, who labored long and hard to make this evening possible.

Gary Bromley

THE RED & BLACK

(Tune: The Princeton Cannon March)

I

There is a banner in the sky,
The streaming Red and Black,
And under it all Boonton's foes
Are gallantly turned back.
Her warriors brave have struggled on
With steadfast, lofty aim,
And placed the shining Red and Black
On enduring heights of fame.

Chorus

Rally to your colors now,
For Boonton High School calls on you,
Fight, fight for victory
And for honor true. Rah, rah, rah.
Proudly she watches you,
You will not fail her in the cause,
With hearts loyal and true
Bring her own colors through
Boonton's Red and Black.

II

The glorious flag which flaunts the breeze
Breathes of a courage rare,
Fine purposes and high resolves,
To challenge them who dare.
While Boonton High School thus goes on
Unswerving, firm and true,
She looks to use to carry on
Her work and ideals, too.
