My Fellow Classmates of 1963:

Twenty-five, yes 25, years ago we left Boonton High. I must admit that 25 years seems like a long time; however, there are still some classes, teachers, incidents, sporting events, and parties that I remember as if it were yesterday. The memories that I have of my beloved Class of '63 are far better than those of elementary school, college, or my first job.

As each reunion rolls around, I find that it has become more and more difficult to compose a welcoming message. For the first reunion, the words flowed freely and lightly. We revisited our high school years, four happy and generally carefree years, which were instantly recalled and shared by all of us in our tenth year out. Together, we also looked to a promising - albeit seemingly distant - future. We spoke about marriage, starting families, and buying houses.

The message of the last reunion came with more difficulty. Twenty years made remembrance of the frivolities of high school a lot more distant. Discussion of families changed from the joys of babies to the difficulties of teenagers, divorce and mid-life crises. Despite the problems of everyday life, we found that echoing our high school memories brought happiness to us all and there was talk about having a reunion every year.

So as we gather together to catch up with each other, brag about our accomplishments and talk about our kids (and our grandchildren), let's allow ourselves to relive some of the greatest years of our lives - those at Boonton High as the great Class of '63.

Welcome, alumni, to our 25th Reunion. I would also like to welcome all spouses and guests. I hope you all enjoy the evening of great music, dancing and memories. It was all made possible through the efforts of our Reunion Committee. We owe a special thanks to them for making this evening possible.

THE RED & BLACK

(Tune: Princeton Cannon March)

I

*There is a banner in the sky,
The streaming Red and Black,
And under it all Boonton's foes
Are gallantly turned back.
Her warriors brave have struggled on
With steadfast, lofty aim,
And placed the shining Red and Black
On enduring heights of fame.*

Chorus

*Rally to your colors now,
For Boonton High School calls on you,
Fight, fight for victory
And for honor true. Rah! Rah! Rah!
Proudly she watches you,
You will not fail her in the cause,
With hearts loyal and true
Bring her own colors through Boonton's Red and Black.*

II

*The glorious flag which which flaunts the breeze
Breathes of a courage rare,
Fine purposes and high resolves,
To challenge them who dare.
While Boonton High School thus goes on Unswerving, firm and true,
She looks to use to carry on
Her work and ideals, too.*

WE LEARNED IT ALL IN KINDERGARTEN

Most of what I really need to know about how to live and what to do and how to be I learned in Kindergarten. Wisdom was not at the top of the graduate school mountain but there in the sandbox.

These are the things I learned: Share everything. Play fair. Don't hit people. Put things back where you found them. Clean up your own mess. Don't take things that aren't yours. Say you're sorry when you hurt somebody. Wash your hands before you eat. Live a balanced life. Learn some and think some, and draw and sing and dance and play and work every day some.

Take a nap in the afternoon. When you go out into the world, watch for traffic, hold hands and stick together. Be aware of wonder. Remember the little seed in the plastic cup. The roots go down and the plant goes up, and nobody really knows why, but we are all like that.

Goldfish and hamsters and white mice and even the little seed in the plastic cup - they all die. So do we.

And then remember the book about Dick and Jane and the first word you learned, the biggest word of all: LOOK. Everything you need to know is in there somewhere. The golden rule and love and basic sanitation. Ecology and politics and sane living.

Think of what a better world it would be if we all had cookies and milk about three o'clock in the afternoon and then lay down with our blankets for a nap. Or if we had a basic policy in our nation and other nations always to put things back where we found them and cleaned up our own messes. And it is still true, no matter how old you are, when you go out into the world it is best to hold hands and stick together.

Greg and Barbara have been married 20 years and have 2 children, ages 17 and 13. Greg is owner/president of Developmental Enterprises which, among other things, owns Penney Pak Direct Mail Advertising. Greg enjoys music: stereo equipment and listening; writing: keyboards, guitar, lyrics; very little performing (I don't play any better now than I did then); and lots of family get togethers. We enjoy socializing, both business and pleasure. We live in Boonton, the excitement capital of the world (as if this would be enough), but the list goes on. We bought my parents old house, expecting to do a little fixing up - that was 10 years ago and we're still fixing. Greg keeps a real estate license and takes occasional courses, college and professional. He still likes older cars, dirty jokes, parties, naked ladies, good books, money, parties, conversation, humor, more parties, meeting people, and just about anything to keep me from mowing the lawn.

*Marty Henry: 522 E. Lancaster Blvd; Apt. C; Lancaster, CA 93535-3128 (805) 945-6163

Marty and Marilyn have been married 22 years and have a son, age 21. Marty is a Senior Field Engineer in the aerospace industry. Marty says "he is still interested in hot rods (I'll never grow up); taking up golf; still a "Trekkie"; reads voraciously; goes to the Air Show at Edwards Air Force Base every day on this job; likes gardening and woodworking." He is retired from the USAF after 20 years and wants to read more books by Toni Fennelly (way to go, Toni); is nearly as bald as Rod Martinis is alleged to be, but is actively trying to grow it back. We have decided to move back to the East Coast (possibly Northeast) in 1989 (anybody know of a house to restore?).

Carolee (Herting) Litwinka: 154 Rainbow Trail; Vernon, CT 06066 (203) 871-8635

Carolee and Mike have been married 20 years and have 2 children, ages 14 and 16. She is a Supervisor, Computer Aided Manufacturing at Pratt Whitney Aircraft. # IN MEMORIAM

THE PLAN OF THE MASTER WEAVER

*Our lives are but fine weavings
That God and we prepare,
Each life becomes a fabric planned
And fashioned in His care...
We may not always see just how
The weavings intertwine,
But we must trust the Master's hand
And follow His design,
For He can view the pattern
Upon the upper side,
While we must look from underneath
And trust in Him to guide.
Sometimes a strand of sorrow
Is added to His plan,*

*And though it's difficult for us,
We still must understand
That it's He who fills the shuttle,
It's He who knows what's best,
So we must weave in patience
And leave to Him the rest...
Not till the loom is silent
And the shuttles cease to fly
Shall God unroll the canvas
And explain the reason why—
The dark threads are as needed
In the Weaver's skillful hand
As the threads of gold and silver
In the pattern He has planned.*

Juniors Attend Summer 'College'

Six Juniors To Represent BHS

Frances Cohen from Boonton, and Joyce Mitchell from Lincoln Park, have been chosen as delegates to Girls State at Douglass College to be held from June 24th to 29th. Judy Weinberg and Jeanne Koskie are alternates.

Selected to attend Boy's State at Rutgers University from June 24th to July 1st are Paul Caragine of Boonton and Fred Lawson of Lincoln Park with Ken Kyte and Rod Martinis as alternates.

The purpose of this program is to instruct the students in the principles of our government in order to increase their usefulness as future leaders. The above delegates and alternates were chosen on the basis of citizenship, leadership, character, and scholarship.

Janet Modrako and Nancy Stone, juniors at BHS, are now attending the Citizenship Institute being held at Douglass College in New Brunswick, N. J. Their alternates are Laura Lee and Retha Sabol.

The Citizenship Institute, which extends from June 18 to 22, is sponsored annually by the Federation of Women's Clubs. Two junior girls, one each from Lincoln Park and Boonton, are attending this year. The purpose of this program is to teach the ideals of good citizenship to the future senior leaders. To qualify, a girl must participate in extracurricular activities, be scholastically acceptable, and illustrate good citizenship in school.

Nancy Terwilliger Elected Majorette

On May 25 the student body voted Nancy Terwilliger as next year's Drum Majorette and Patricia Thompson as Head Twirler. On the following Monday, May 28, six new twirlers and two alternates were chosen to replace those girls graduating. Cathy McNabb, Retha Sabol, Mary Lou Glese, Barbara Anderson, Mary Fortman, and Nancy Rutledge were selected by the members of the 1961 Twirling Team with the two alternates being Rosemary Crefeld and Barbara Kirk. The twirlers were assisted in the judging by the following teachers: Miss Lois Garrison, Miss Allene Hunt, Mr. Victor Rental, Mr. Paul Richley, and Mr. Harold Warford.

Brian DeLuca to Lead '63 "Echoes"

In a recent election, the Junior class chose Brian DeLuca as Editor and Frances Cohen as Assistant Editor of the 1963 Yearbook, The Echoes.

Brian, a capable leader, has high hopes and many plans for next year. He has participated in baseball, cross-country, and the Junior Play. Besides his editorship, Brian has shown much ability as a National Honor Society member and a Senior Usher.

Frances Cohen, an efficient planner and hard worker, will serve as Assistant Editor. Frances' ability has led her into the S.R.A., N.H.S., the Junior Play, Service Club, and Wampus Staff, among others.

The Yearbook Staff members are:

Art
Editor: Joanne Zimmerly.
Staff: Natalie Kononenko, Dorolyn Lucas.

Business
Manager: Laura Lee.
Staff: Donna Dixon, Janet Drake, Roger Parsons, Judy Weinberg.

Photography
Editor: Chuck McGrath.
Staff: Bruce Cavall, Rod Martinis, Richard Pugsley.

Literary
Staff: Donna Dixon, Joan Doremus, Claire Kaempffe, Linda Killock, Trudy Nowak, Nancy Stone, Jane Sturges.

Typing
Staff: Dorothy Holloman, Richard Hupkman, Nancy Stone, Jane Sturges.

Sports
Editor: Paul Caragine.

THE WAMPUS WISHES
ALL A HAPPY SUMMER

Paul Caragine Selected Wampus Editor-in-Chief

Paul Caragine has been selected Editor-in-Chief of the "Wampus" for next year. He was chosen by outgoing Editor, Ralph Porzio with the approval of Miss Emmons, Faculty Advisor.

Paul has been on the "Wampus" since he was a freshman, serving as Sports Editor for two years. He also was in the Junior Play, German Club, BHS Band and Orchestra, NHS; and next year will be President of the Math Club and Sports Editor of the Yearbook. This summer he will attend Boy's State at Rutgers.

Paul and his staff will be responsible for the success of next year's "Wampus", in his words, "the greatest Wampus of all time!"

Senior Ushers Select Successors

Debby Belsky, Donna Dixon, Barbara Fitch, Jeanne Koskie, Janet Modrako, Alfred Berardino, Richard Canut, Brian DeLuca, Martin Henry and Rod Martinis were chosen as next year's Senior Ushers from the twenty boys and girls elected by the Junior Class.

The selections were made by Mr. Ryder and this year's squad which consisted of Judy Beiermeister, Gail Jeannette, Geri McInerney, Claudia Stropes, Gall Watson, Ray D'Andrea, Jeff Jorgensen, Al Ponnwitz, Gary Powers, and Hank Rothbart.

The new group will usher for the Baccalaureate exercises and Commencement.

"... They Just Go Rolling Along"

Over the dreary years, many of our teachers have picked up sayings that they insist on injecting into our daily lives. Many of us take pleasure in counting the number of times these worn-out phrases are used during a period.

The most popular trite expression is "and so on." Maybe the teachers just don't want us to know what to expect, or maybe they themselves don't know.

Nevertheless, come Health class with Coach or Glee Club with Mr. Richley, there is always someone tallying the results.

Many other teachers also have way-out lingo. Here are some of the all-time classics:

Mr. Caplinger: "Now, Ladies and gentlemen, and so forth . . . that was a funny, and so forth."

Mrs. Irwin: "Now Seniors, (or fourth period) just in passing . . . Let's put that into the hopper."

Miss Pavidis: "Get the point? You See? Of course, you little cherubs."

Mr. Scrudato: "Right! and so on . . . and the like . . . and such . . . as it were."

Mr. Moore: Ah, the ah, ah, ah, ah, thing ah, ah, ah, I would like to say ah is ah, ah . . . and so on."

Coach Shriner: "All right, we don't need the ceremony, and so on. Now as far as this thing is concerned, and so, uh, and so on."

Mr. Backus: "First I gunna add 'em, then subtract 'em, then take the square root of it, and substitute the whole thing in for thet, back in the original equation."

Mr. Pagani: "All right, fellas, cool it, fellas, will ya? Tom, Bob, Pete, Joe, Frank, Ken, Rodg, come on fellas, FELL-AS!!!!"

Mr. Amsler: "What'd you say sahn? Yes Sah, Right!"

Mr. Wittman: "In all probabilities as long as your IQ is negative infinity, you should have neither the right, the privilege, nor the prerogative to assume you can assume anything!"

Mr. Molitoris: "Where were you at then?"

Miss Lanza: "Well, I'm sorry, that's your little red wagon—you pull it."

Miss Edmonds: "As I've always said, pseudoliberals are ruining our government."

Mr. Rentel: "All right, people, let's get secured away. Turn that radio down a little will you Jan, Mr. Booth is trying to read the Bible!"

Mr. Ryder (squashing hands together) Yes? Yes! I am pink! Yes? Yes?

Dr. Kenworthy: "Gee, I couldn't tell you when the College Board Tests are! Come see me sometime in my office this morning and I'll lookit—Oh, wait! I have an interview scheduled, you'd better come in two weeks from now at 9:27 A. M. . . . No, Frances, I haven't ordered your charm yet, as soon as I have time . . ."

Mr. Walls: "All right, let's quiet down. Okay, first do the first column, then the second, then the third and so on down the line, then go back and get the fourth, fifth, sixth, and so on down the line—Do you get it, and so on down the line, down the line?"

Doc Warford: "Gee, people, I try to have a good band here but you people just won't cooperate."

Mr. Veres (looking at a drawing): "What's this here jobber, what? Oh—saddest story every told; now, what's this jobber here? What? Saddest story every told. Very Good—F+."

Mrs. Backus: "Au secours, au secours! . . . Volontier ou victime? . . . You just sit there like blobs of protoplasm!"

Mr. Berryman: "Okay, all your Mediterranean Irishmen, I got it cut but all the crew bailed out. Right, Harold?"

INQUIRING REPORTER

QUESTION #2: As a graduating senior, what advice do you give to underclassmen?

ANSWERS:

Ronnie Osborne: Don't sweat it.

Pete Makosky: Always look busy in study hall, even if you're not.

Bob Nelson: Forget it!

Rod Martenis: If you're planning on becoming too ill to attend school . . . don't leave your car in the school parking lot. Right, Miss Gross?

Marty Henry: Experience is the best education.

Paul Hollinghurst: Be a blond and see.

Paul Weidenschilling: Never trust a female.

Frances Cohen: Work, work, work!!

Earl Schoenborn: Just keep thinking that it's all a nightmare. That will make it easier.

Jeann White: Nothing.

Carol Herting: Get your detentions done before the last week of school.

Phil Villorresi: Coach isn't as bad as you think; he's worse.

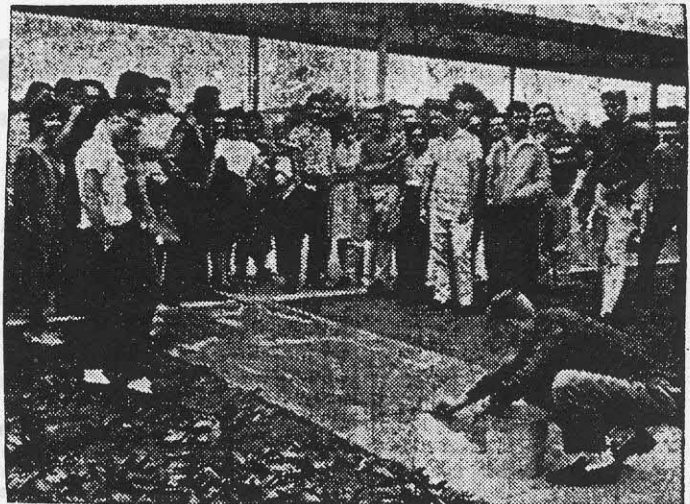

Dorothea Holloman: Try to make the grade.

Natalie Kononenko: Go gargle with peanut butter.

Fred Lawson: Last year somebody gave me advice. He said, "Cheer up, things could be worse." Well, I cheered up, and sure enough, things got worse.

Audrey Syversen: Keep Mr. Rutt happy by . . .

Rich Canut: Try to learn in spite of . . .

"They Could Have Danced All Night" . . .

"Enchanted Garden," theme of the 1962 Junior Prom, was held Friday, June 1 from 9:00 P. M. to 1:30 A. M. The Prom, given by the Junior class in honor of the Seniors, was held at Mazdabrook Farms, Parsippany.

Couples were given an opportunity to be photographed upon their arrival at the dance. Decorations included a rose arbor opening onto the dance floor, a rock garden, and garlands of gladiolas. Small bottles of perfume were presented to each girl.

Musical arrangements were presented by Percy Hallack and "The Twilights."

At midnight, a lavish buffet supper was served, followed by a "Grand Promenade."

The Juniors with their class advisor Miss Dorothea Allen worked diligently as a unit and succeeded in presenting a most memorable evening.

BOONTON HIGH SCHOOL, BOONTON, N. J.

JUNE 20, 1963

It's A—

Gridiron Graduation for Class of 1963

Tuesday evening, June 18, 203 young men and women ended a very memorable and important portion of their lives. Boonton High School's former seniors graduated into a new phase of life—to college, business, and marriage.

During the processional, War March of the Priests, "Athalia" by Mendelssohn, the Class of '63 led by Natalie Kononenko, Valedictorian; Gary Bromley, Class President; Carolyn Lowther, Salutatorian; and F. Tiffany Butts, Class Orator marched onto the football field.

Following the Invocation by Rev. Frank Huff of the Boonton Reformed Church, Miss Carolyn Lowther welcomed the families and guests of the graduates in the Salutatory.

Miss Evelyn Larson performed a piano solo, "Valse in B Minor" by Chopin. The Class Oration was then given by F. Tiffany Butts.

Following this, a solo, "I Believe" was rendered by Miss Dorothea Holloman accompanied by Miss Lynne Heller. The Valedictory address was given by Miss Natalie Kononenko.

Diplomas were presented to the graduates by Mr. William Potter, principal of Boonton High, and Mrs. A. D. Fowler, President of the Boonton Board of Education.

After the presentations were orchestral excerpts from "Andalucia" by Lecuona by the Boonton High School Orchestra conducted by Mr. Paul C. Richley.

Mr. Clifford H. Welsh, member of the Boonton Board of Education awarded the following prizes: Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute Medal, Holmes prizes, Dagmar M. Ross, Rotary-Kiwanis Prizes, De Molay Sportsmanship Award, Raymond Curtin V. F. W. Sports Award, Alice Gulton

Walsh Prizes, Boonton B. P. O. Elks' Citizenship Awards, Woman's Club Prizes, MacDowell Club Prize, Albert Musetto Prizes, Robert J. Budrick Prizes, Business and Professional Women's Club Prize, Jewish Sisterhood Prizes, Lions Club Prizes, Fashion Club Prize, German Club Prize, Mathematics Club Prize, and announcement of Scholarships and Honors.

Announcement of the Class Memorial was made by Gary Bromley, President of the Class of 1963. The two-part memorial consisted of a companion spotlight for the auditorium to match the one left by the Class of '62, and a large black bulletin board for announcements to be placed in the main hall.

A Senior Vocal Ensemble, conducted by Miss Nancy Stone, Class of '63, next offered a selection entitled "The Halls of Ivy". The Benediction was given by Father Joseph J. Meyers of Pope Plus X Church in Montville.

The new graduates recessed to the familiar strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" by Elgar, played by the B.H.S. Orchestra to conclude the affair—first on the new football field after an unbroken string of 41 graduations on the old B.H.S. front lawn.

Little Worm

by JOANNE ZIMMERLY

Once upon a midnight sleepy,
while I studied, bored
and weepy,
Making many a vain attempt to try to raise my history
score,
I sighed with the thought of sleeping, since I'd been late hours keeping,
When I saw an object creeping underneath my bedroom door.
It was slowly, slowly creeping straight across my bedroom floor.
'Twas a worm and nothing more.

Thinking still of marks and teacher, my thoughts half-turned toward the creature,
Representing anything, in looks, that man kind could deplore.
Wishing I was six feet under,
all my work I tore
assunder,
When, to my surprise and wonder, I saw that the creature wore
Glasses, robe and mortarboard.
Then he said in silent
roar,
"You'll have homework
never more."

I laughed awhile; it was hilarious. Here my marks were so precarious.

I could not imagine one night passing with no homework debt.

Every night, though, we conversed. I skipped my homework from the first,

Then I knew I'd done the worst, for he was carry-out his threat.

"Little Worm" is now no more, because I squashed
the fiendish pet.

I failed every subject, yet.

I'll have homework
nevermore

I'm expelled forevermore.

(With all due apology to Edgar Allan Poe)

Haunting Hair Problems

If you're a boy . . .

Does your cowlick make your hair stick straight up in the middle of your head?
Do you use that "greasy kid's stuff"?

Do girls run when you take off that plaid beret?

Is the secret loose or does only your hairdresser know?

Do the girls all ignore your wink?

The Natural Look

Does the weather friz your long golden locks?

Does the class that make "Princeton bangs" out of the front of your crew-cut?

Do people mistake you for Yul Brenner when you walk out of the barber shop?

If you're a girl . . .

Does your hair reek with dust from the gym floor?

Do boys ask that all terrifying question, "Are you
wearing HAIR SPRAY"?

When you're letting your hair grow,—does everyone keep asking you if you just got it cut?

Does your fly-away always get in the boy's face when you're dancing with him?

Does your hair dryer break down just before that big date so that you have to keep him waiting an hour?

Do the girls all whisper when you've turned from a BLACK to a BLONDE?

By the end of the two days,
does your hair look like you've used the "greasy kid's stuff"?

Do you spend two hours a night setting your hair and then sit up the rest of the night because the rollers are killing you?

Baccalaureate Exercises Marked Opening of Senior Week

In the Boonton High School auditorium, Baccalaureate exercises were held on Sunday, June 16th, at 2:00. The procession for the graduating Seniors was the "Festival March" by Puccini, presented by the BHS Orchestra. Reverend Nelson Bennett, of the Boonton Methodist Church, delivered the Invocation. Joining in song, the graduating class and the audience sang "America the Beautiful".

The purpose of these annual exercises is to speak to the Graduating Seniors as a group concerning the world and its challenges before them. Religion is an integral part of the ceremony with the idea of asking for divine guidance in the pursuit of the individual lives.

For this reason it is a very solemn but rewarding affair that makes a deep impression on the seniors to be remembered always.

The Glee Club, under the direction of Mr. Paul C. Richley, presented the moving "Battle Hymn of the Republic", with a duo-piano accompaniment. The Honorable Harold C. Kessinger presented the day's address entitled "Tuning in on the Future." Mr. Kessinger has been an editor, a publisher, a journalist, a world traveler, and a civic leader. A choral benediction, "Graduation prayer", by Yahres, was sung by the Glee Club. "March Militaire No. 1" by Schubert, was the recessional to which the Seniors exited to have their class photograph taken.

1963 Junior Prom Deemed Success

"Spring Fascination", the Junior Prom, was held on May 24, 1963, and was presented by the industrious Class of '64. Birchwood Manor in Whippany, N. J., was the site; it was transformed into a splendid flower garden. The dance lasted from 9:00 to 2:00 A. M.

The tuxedo-attired boys escorted their dates, in formal gowns, to this awaited event. By invitation, many of the faculty and board members attended also. A color photograph of each couple was taken at no extra cost. The Velvetones, a local group who appear at the Pudding Stone Inn every Saturday evening, provided the dance music.

A buffet dinner was served at 12:00. On the menu were such delicious platters as: roast beef, ham, turkey, two different salads, numerous crisp vegetables, rolls, and butter. The beverages served were tea, milk, soda, and coffee. The remainder of the Prom was spent on the dance floor enjoying the music.

The price per couple was $10.50 for seniors and $12.50 for underclassmen. Tickets were purchased from Mrs. Rental in room 214 after school or before, in the front of the gym.

Studentism Is The Rule On Annual BHS Day

On Friday, April 5th, the student revolution at Boonton High came to a head as students seized control of the administrative and faculty positions; the students reigned for eight glorious periods. Order was finally restored at 3:16 when Principal Joyce Mitchko and the rest of her staff stepped down from the positions they had held all day, and fled.

The administrative officers were taken over by the following pupils: Principal, Joyce Mitchko; Vice Principal, Walter Bobbie; Attendance Office, Jane Mills and Frances Cohen; Clinic, Tiffany Butts; Front Office, Toni Fennelly; Librarian, Ferne Brunner; and Janitors, Al Beradino, Paul Caragine, Marty Henry, and Gary Bromley.

A SRA Assembly started the day, after which the pupils proceeded to classes taught by student teachers. These student teachers were allowed to teach only one class, and were required to have at least a B— average in that class.

The culmination of the day was a Variety Show held at the high school in the evening, the proceeds of which went into the Foreign Exchange Student Fund.

The Student Day program is four years old, and has given students an opportunity to shoulder some of the administrative and teaching responsibilities. This experiment has proved successful in the past, and the 1963 Student Day also was a success. By the combined efforts of students and teachers alike, this was made a worthwhile project.

Another year has come to an end, but for some the fun is just starting. That's true, isn't it, Claire and Jim, Donna and Dave, Chris and Pete?

Boonton may be home-sweet-home for some but not for others. Pat S. and Abby B. like Parsippany boys, Kirt and Karl. Speaking of out-of-towners, a new boy, Kenny Hughes, seems to find Kay Jackson quite interesting.

Unfortunately, Pat will soon be losing Steve to the Navy. Hey Betty S., we hear Pat is headed for the Marines.

To quite a few, on the other hand, there's no place like school. Bill Nerko and Jeri Lenko find Glee Club rather interesting. Pat Dick, who have you been sharing your locker with? We see you're wearing his varsity sweater, too. Dominic Gallo and Jeanette Heinzelman finally got together in 8th period study.

And Fred DeLange, now that you have your license, just where do you plan to take Barbara this summer? Don't tell anyone about those three-page "where and when" letters you're getting from Mel.

Chuck, have you made up your mind yet? (You know what we mean.)

Hey, Tiff and Dale, what have you been doing on Saturday nights?

Have you seen the reason why Sharon Mahedy looks so radiant? It must be the sparkle of the fraternity pin Doug Gould gave her.

The sound of wedding bells is in the air for Barbara Avery. Harry Johnson is the lucky guy. While we're on the subject, congratulations to you too, Mr. Connolly, on your engagement.

There are some "new" couples becoming familiar around the halls: Kathy Pabyan and Frank O'Meara, Cindy Vreeland and Brad Kay, Sharon Haste and Norm Heavener, Jane Stufges and Rocky Mazzel and Linda Emery and Sam LoManto.

The routine is still the same for many happy twosomes: Linda Beirmeister and Kris Hobbins, Janet Verwey and Dick Wilson, Judy Sisco and Chuck Ward, Grace Mrasz and Bruce Hobbins, and Gary and Irene.

Ellen Kunits is quite the social butterfly lately. When she's not busy patronizing West Point, she is off to East Strousburg College.

Norman Dudzak is Debbie Belsky's outside interest. Joe Lampone finds Greenwood Lake very prosperous, for girls that is. Aino Muerk loves the excitement of the big city. Could Whitey be the reason?

Seen together at the Jr. Prom were Paul Caragine and Ferne Brunner, Pete Straube and Nat Sporano, Walter Bobbie and Joyce Mitchko, Barb Anderson and Paul Straube, Bruce Price and Laurie Baldwin, Rodi Wentzel and Ray Bianconi, Marta Diaczuk and Rich Bianchi, Sue Dyer and Bill Hubert, Annabel Aldridge and Eddie Reynolds, Pat Outwater and Rich Gallo, Sherry Nexon and Don Kerton, Vicky Wilson and Eddie Parillo, Jeanne Koskie and Jeff Evans, Leslie Ryan and Ken Gould, Kathy McNabb and Rod Martenis, and Rich Canut and Sharon Dougherty to mention a few.

Dodie Haste and Jim Bodino, Ken H. and Barbara G., what are your plans for the summer?

Now that Steve G. has come back to Carol F., maybe 3rd period study hall won't be so long.

We've heard complaints about the lack of parties lately. Come, on kids, how about a few solutions for the shortage. Seniors, let's show 'em!

At last summer is here. The days are longer, the sun is hotter, and the water is refreshingly cool. Next time the mercury skyrockets, remember the lakes—see you there!

Have a wonderful romantic summer and we'll see you next year. Seniors, good luck at college.
